We know that you, Mom and Dad, have encouraged us to complete our education. We think of the many sacrifices you have made, the many times you have met us after bus trips out of town, the many games, plays, and other activities you have attended because we participated in them.

We hope this book will bring back many pleasant memories of experiences in our years of high school.

We want you to know that we appreciate everything you have done for us and that we love you very much.

The Story

Somewhere in the world lives a little crippled shepherd called Amahl, with his mother, an impoverished widow. They are faced with hunger and cold in their empty house.

Three Wise Men, on their way to Bethlehem, stop at the hut and ask to be taken in for the night. Amahl and his mother welcome them and are astonished at the splendor of their robes and the wealth of gifts they are carrying. When Amahl's mother realizes that the Three Kings are looking for a newborn babe and that the gifts are for him, she becomes bitter and envious. She cannot understand why some of these gifts are not to be bestowed upon her own child, who is so poor and sickly.

While the Three Kings are asleep, she steals gold from them . . . and is caught red-handed. Amahl bravely tries to protect his mother, who is readily forgiven by the Kings. With great tenderness they explain who this newborn child is and how much he needs the love of every human being to build his coming kingdom. Touched by their words, the poor widow not only gives back the gold, but wishes she could add a gift. Amahl impulsively hands the Three Kings his wooden crutch, and in doing so he is cured.

At dawn the Kings and Amahl leave for Bethlehem.

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming at LRHS is always a gala, colorful occasion enjoyed by all those attending. This year was no exception as the senior class presented as their Queen, Connie Royer and King, Doyle Hoyt. The Indian Royalty and their attendants, Delma Hoyt and Vaughn Allen, freshman; Linda Ross and Darrel Hoyt, sophomores; Donna Seals and Terry Green, juniors; marched up the royal aisle formed by the pep club members. The band formed a heart in which Chieftain Bill Downing crowned Doyle and he in turn crowned Connie. Indian Princess Hazel Fleming was crown bearer. The game was followed by the annual homecoming dance sponsored by the senior class.
